Editor's Mail

Good Ole Summertime

Once again, vacation time has come and gone. My husband and I drove 3500 miles this year. We went to California to see 4 of our grand children. On the way home we donated a few dollars to Las Vegas to help pay their electric bills. Then we spent some time with Gayle and Lola Evans in Utah. (Great steaks we had.) Next on to Flakes ranch in Arizona. Steve and Sharla Flake rolled out the carpet and had 15 friends and family over for a great dinner. Steve drove us into town for a tour of the 100 year old family home. We looked at the cattle which always interests me. So once again summer is nearly over. August we start getting busier in the office, however, we really didn't slow down much this year. Anyway time and tide wait for no man, time marches on, etc. I'm looking forward to seeing all of you in Nashville. We have outdone ourselves this convention. You will have a real great time.

Mary

Convention Update

Plans are all finalized for this year's annual convention. In addition to conducting the association's business, electing new directors and setting fee schedules, many other subjects will be discussed. It is important for you to have a voice in your association's future. In addition, there will be fun and fellowship galore. Tickets to Grand Ole Opry are purchased and the General Jackson dinner cruise has been reserved. You need to plan on attending for both the serious business and the fun. By the way we will tour Gerry Holmes Beefmaster ranch in Alabama! See you in Nashville.

Dear FBA Members,

I am against the proposed change in the certificate price. I would not certify anymore cattle than I do now and I certify all breeding stock sold.

I feel most of your smaller breeders will not change their procedure on certifying cattle. They didn't certify when it was a $25.00 fee.

Whether we are large or small operations, the breeders that certify cattle now are the ones carrying the load. However, as a breeder I feel we must have pride in our association. Therefore, if I have to be one of the breeders to help carry the load, that does not bother me.

The association is healthy now, so let's leave the fee at $35.00 and use some of this money to help the N.C.A. lobby against some of the campaigns going against us. Some of our larger operators are the ones affected by environmental and public land issues. Also, we could put more into public relations for promotion of our breed.

The fees I pay for certifying my cattle costs me just as much in proportion as a larger operator when he sells in large numbers.

The support of any organization has always fallen on a percentage of members who are willing to do the work, finances, labor, etc.

To encourage more participation of members to certify cattle, I feel falls on each one of us to contact breeders in our area and encourage them to certify all cattle sold. One on one contact is effective.

The change to a $12.00 fee will hurt our association financially, because we will not cause an increase in numbers of cattle certified. Since we are healthy now, why stir up the waters and cause a problem.

I encourage each FBA member to let the Finance Committee know how they feel on this subject.

Sincerely,

Charlie Duree

Solano, New Mexico

Beef "On" Forage Field Day

The Central Texas Beefmasters Breeders, Beef "On" Forage Bull Test Consignors and Sponsors hosted their Fifth Annual Field Day, Saturday, June 29 at the Bull Test Facility, east of Rosebud, Texas. Over 170 members and guests from Texas, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Wyoming and Ohio attended the program which included guest speakers, sponsor displays, BBQ lunch, door prizes and inspection of 109 Beefmaster Bulls.

Results of the 84 day forage test were given along with actual weaning weights, adjusted 205 day weights, gain weights, 452 day yearling weights, weight per day of age and rations. The bulls are being tested under the guidelines of the Texas Forage and Grassland Council Forage Bull Development Program.

Featured speaker Dr. Bill Turner, Texas A & M Beef Cattle Specialist discussed the importance of using Beefmasters in the commercial cattle business and how the Beefmaster cross female was unsurpassed in maternal ability.

Dr. Neal Pratt, Texas A & M Forage Specialist

discussed the importance of soil and forage testing to obtain high quality forages.

FBA President, Jim Gowan discussed the Lasater philosophy of raising Beefmaster cattle. FBA representative to the National Cattleman's Association, O.C. Rampley discussed the controversies facing land owners and cattlemen from environmentalist and animal rights groups. He encouraged everyone to join and support NCA our spokesman in Washington.

Following a delicious BBQ lunch, sponsors gave their presentations and drawings where held for various door prizes and two $500 Certificates given by CTBB. Winners were James Knott of Rosebud, Texas and Cowboy Powers of Lampasas, Texas.

Following the program the group inspected the 109 Forage Tested Bulls which will sell October 19, in Brenham, Texas. For more information concerning the forage test or sale, contact: Gary J. Frenzel, Rt. 3, Box 280, Temple, Texas 76501 (817) 983-2901.
